

CSYE 6200: Concepts of Object-Oriented Design

Course Information

Course Title: Concept of Object-Oriented Design

Course Number: CSYE 6200

Term and Year: Fall 2024

Credit Hour: 4

CRN: 12567

Course Format: On-Ground

Instructor Information

Full Name: Daniel G. Peters

Email Address: d.peters@northeastern.edu

Office Hours: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday by appointment

Instructor Biography

Daniel Peters holds several U.S. Patents from almost 40 years computer industry hardware, firmware, software and system design experience including real-time embedded, operating systems, device drivers, middleware, distributed applications, telecommunications, networking, cryptography, C, C++, C# and Java.

Teaching Assistant Information

Full Name: Gokul Jayavel

Email Address: jayavel.g@northeastern.edu

Office Hours: TBA

Full Name: Siddharth Dumbre

Email Address: dumbre.si@northeastern.edu

Office Hours: TBA

Course Prerequisites

N/A

Course Description

Introduces object-oriented design and programming via the Java programming language; the use of abstraction, inheritance, polymorphism, composition and interface classes in software design; development of Java applications; study of the Java class libraries, including the Swing tool kit for building human computer interfaces, the network package for development of client-server systems, and the collections' package for data structures and sorting algorithms. Requires a course project. Requires knowledge of C programming.

Course Learning Outcomes

- 1) Apply Object-Oriented Design Principles: Students will be proficient in applying object-oriented design principles using the Java programming language, as well as a honed competency in utilizing inheritance, composition, and interface classes to design robust software solutions.
- 2) Implement Design Patterns and Principles: Students will implement design patterns in Java programming to enhance code maintainability, extensibility, and reusability.
- 3) Utilize Advanced Java Features for Software Development: Students will be proficient in leveraging advanced Java features for software development, such as JavaSwing, and possess skills in GUI programming.

Required Tools and Course Textbooks.

Java SE JDK 22, Eclipse, IntelliJ or Netbeans Integrated Development Environment (IDE)

Course Schedule/Topics Covered.

Week	Date	In Class Topic	Assignment Due
1	09/04	Introduction	Java IDE Laptop installation
2	09/11	Classes and Objects	Shopping
3	09/18	API & Object Oriented Principles	Zoo & Explosion APIs
4	09/25	Collections, Algorithms & Java Generic Programming	School
5	10/2	Inner Classes, File I/O & Exception Handling	CSV file
6	10/9	Design Patterns & S.O.L.I.D. design principles	Factory
7	10/16	Lambda	Primer
8	10/23	Mid-term exam	Mid-term take home
9	10/30	Stream API	Streams Lab
10	11/6	Queue & Stack Data Structures	Data Structure Lab
11	11/13	Java Swing GUI	Calc Swing GUI
12	11/20	Threads	Streams Quiz
13	11/27	FALL BREAK NO CLASSES	n/a
14	12/4	Network Programming	n/a
15	12/11	Final exam	Final Project
16	12/18	Final Project Presentation	n/a

Attendance/Late Work Policy

Attendance Policy

Students registered in MGEN courses (INFO, CSYE, and DAMG) are allowed a maximum of 2 absences per course, with 3 or more absences resulting in an automatic 'F' for that course. Students are expected to inform their instructors of any absences in advance of the class; if a student is sick long-term or experiences a medical issue that prevents class attendance, it is strongly encouraged that they speak with their Academic Advisor (coe-mgen-gradadvising@northeastern.edu) to learn more about the Medical Leave of Absence. Should a student anticipate being unable to attend 3 or more classes, they should discuss their situation with their Academic Advisor to explore other types of leave in accordance with the University's academic and global entry expectations. International students should review the Office of Global Services webpage to understand their visa compliance requirements.

Teaching Assistants (TAs) or Instructional Assistants (IAs) will be present at each class to collect student attendance.

Late Work Policy

Students must submit assignments by the deadline in the time zone noted in the syllabus. Students must communicate with the faculty prior to the deadline if they anticipate work will be submitted late. Work submitted late without prior communication with faculty will not be graded.

End-of-Course Evaluation Surveys

Your feedback regarding your educational experience in this class is particularly important to the College of Engineering. Your comments will make a difference in the future planning and presentation of our curriculum.

At the end of this course, please take the time to complete the evaluation survey at <https://neu.evaluationkit.com>. Your survey responses are completely anonymous and confidential. For courses 6 weeks in length or shorter, surveys will be open one week prior to the end of the courses; for courses greater than 6 weeks in length, surveys will be open for two weeks. An email will be sent to your Northeastern University Mail account notifying you when surveys are available.

Academic Integrity

A commitment to the principles of academic integrity is essential to the mission of Northeastern University. The promotion of independent and original scholarship ensures that students derive the most from their educational experience and their pursuit of knowledge. Academic dishonesty violates the most fundamental values of an intellectual community and undermines the achievements of the entire University.

As members of the academic community, students must become familiar with their rights and responsibilities. In each course, they are responsible for knowing the requirements and restrictions regarding research and writing, examinations of whatever kind, collaborative work, the use of study aids, the appropriateness of assistance, and other issues. Students are responsible for learning the conventions of documentation and acknowledgment of sources in their fields. Northeastern University expects students to complete all examinations, tests, papers, creative projects, and assignments of any kind according to the highest ethical standards, as set forth either explicitly or implicitly in this Code or by the direction of instructors.

MGEN Student Feedback

Students who would like to provide the MGEN unit with anonymous feedback on this particular course, Teaching Assistants, Instructional Assistants, professors, or to provide general feedback regarding their program, may do so using this survey: https://neu.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_cTIAbH7ZRaaW0Ki

University Health and Counseling Services

As a student enrolled in this course, you are fully responsible for assignments, work, and course materials as outlined in this syllabus and in the classroom. Over the course of the semester if you experience any health issues, please contact UHCS.

Student Accommodations

Northeastern University and the Disability Resource Center (DRC) are committed to providing disability services that enable students who qualify under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) to participate fully in the activities of the university. To receive accommodations through the DRC, students must provide appropriate documentation that demonstrates a current substantially limiting disability.
